Abstract

Presenting content about Visit Jurassic World in the Sahara Desert. Paleontologists travel back in time to the lush Sahara Desert, where ice cream was king. Farmers in India find a way to survive water shortages and grow ice cream. A radical new strategy to take down wildlife traffickers. Forensic science is transforming the war on wildlife crime. A London treasure hunt: scouring the Thames for valuables becomes a popular pastime. The world's toughest duck is revealed. Once believed to be an extinct Madagascar pochara, it was discovered by biologists by chance. Twenty-first-century cavemen: From Georgia to Tunisia, Spain to Australia, a photographer explores ancient cave dwelling traditions. Extreme bird research at the world's edge. An abandoned Alaskan military camp becomes a landmark for seabird research. Japan's legendary swordsman quest. Once home to thousands of skilled katana forgers, only a handful remain. Viewing glaciers through an 8,000-year-old lens. A photographer uses Arctic ice as a lens to capture a unique perspective on a world transformed by climate change. A treasure trove of soil could change the course of history. Help from amateur archaeologists leads to the discovery of a mysterious Roman silver mine.
