

Through unlikely bonds formed during night shifts at a local aquarium, Tova, an elderly widow, learns of a life-changing discovery that may bring her joy and wonder once again.

|                                       |                                                                                                   |
|---------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Title                                 | Remarkably Bright Creatures                                                                       |
| Samples can be viewed on the website. | https://www.netflix.com/th/title/81911351 |
| Category                              | Foreign movies                                                                                    |
| Genres                                | Comedy / Drama                                                                                    |
| Director                              | Olivia Newman                                                                                     |
| Runtime                               | 111 minute                                                                                        |
| Actor/Actress                         | Sally Field, Lewis Pullman, Alfred Molina                                                         |

