

A respected attorney must defend a murder suspect he previously brought down. Forced into the case, he bends every rule to secure freedom for his former enemy or risk losing all he cherishes.

|                                       |                                                                                                   |
|---------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Title                                 | Ikka                                                                                              |
| Samples can be viewed on the website. | https://www.netflix.com/th/title/82134666 |
| Category                              | Foreign movies                                                                                    |
| Genres                                | Crime / Drama / Thriller                                                                          |
| Director                              | Siddharth P Malhotra                                                                              |
| Runtime                               | 140 minute                                                                                        |
| Actor/Actress                         | Sunny Deol, Akshaye Khanna, Dia Mirza                                                             |

