

True Story
What Reality TV Says About Us
Danielle J. Lindemann

P. 18

features

18 Collection Building Blocks

By Jennifer Dayton Books to know and buy now, and suggest to readers all season long. Plus, LJ reviews editors' personal picks, including author Wanda M. Morris, on the cover, who tells Lesa Holstine about her debut mystery, and an interview with Roxane Gay by Leah Huey about Gay's new imprint.

26 Surveying the Field: RA By the Numbers

By Neal Wyatt Eight years on, readers' advisory research shows that the service has grown in popularity and importance, but time to read widely and practice skills is still needed.

32 Summer/Fall Bests

By Barbara Hoffert Some 37 debut novels from key summer reads to promising new works coming out through November. Includes several first full-length works from well-regarded short story authors.

36 2020: The Year of Government Information

By Bryan Fuller The American Library Association's Government Documents Roundtable highlights the standout publications of a unique year. See the full list online at libraryjournal.com/2020GovDocs.

38 Collection Development

By Lisa Henry Women Who Rock. These 37 titles serve as tributes to the women who play important roles in the music scene and provide insight into their inspirations and obstacles, and the impact their songs have. See the online version for documentaries.

news+

- 10 ALA Annual Conference News Roundup
Online gathering brings big names, tech news, goals for inclusivity

---

- 12 Industry
IBM, YALSA Partner on P-TECH Platform

---

- 13 Public
NYC Restores FY22 Libraries Budget

---

- 13 Technology
UNC Machine Learning Analyzes Jim Crow Laws

---

- 14 Academic
"Slavery and the Archive" at Emory

---

- 16 UMD, GSU Link Labor, Civil Rights Movements

commentary

- 8 Editorial
By Meredith Schwartz
Interlibrary Advisory

---

- 15 Programs that Pop
By Lisa Vos
Trail Tales

P. 38

LJ
reviews

media

42 Audio Reviews

Love in Color, Bolu Babalola's debut short story volume, is a must-have for all collections

44 Video Reviews

A biopic of '30s film star Ruan Lingyu, plus other indie picks 44/Fast Scans 44/Coming Attractions 45/Real Reels

books

46 Prepub Alert

Xochitl Gonzalez debuts with a 300,000-copy run for Olga Dies Dreaming; Hanya Yanagihara is back with To Paradise

51 Mystery &amp; Suspense

Wanda M. Morris debuts with a deftly unspooled thriller. LJ interviews Morris in the Fall Preview; 19 titles

56 SF/Fantasy

Fonda Lee concludes the "Green Bone Saga" trilogy, which will stand as a pillar of epic fantasy; 8 titles

58 Graphic Novels

Run is the 4th illustrated civil rights history by the late congressman John Lewis, with Andrew Aydin, L. Fury, and Nate Powell; 8 titles

60 Romance

Jen DeLuca's "Well Met" series continues with a book readers won't want to put down; 11 titles

63 Fiction

Rémy Ngamije's The Eternal Audience of One is a consequential coming-of-age novel 66/Debuts

SOCIAL SCIENCES

“Sirens aren't unusual in Squirrel Hill; it's not a violent neighborhood, but it's densely inhabited and very alive. The houses—grand ones and smaller ones, attached dwellings and apartment buildings—are on small lots, without much margin of green at the edges; people hear their neighbors and know each other's business.”

Mark Oppenheimer, Squirrel Hill: The Tree of Life Synagogue Shooting and the Soul of a Neighborhood, prologue

67 Classic Returns

Librarian David Wright debuts a new column focused on recent and forthcoming reprints and rediscoveries

69 Arts &amp; Humanities

Mirin Fader's Giannis is a must-read biography of the NBA megastar

74 Social Sciences

Paradise is the definitive account of California's devastating Camp Fire

88 Science &amp; Technology

Daniel Sherrell's Warmth is brave, honest, and bold

92 Parenting

Dr. Traci Baxley's Social Justice Parenting is a must-read; Wild Days is a fun guide to outdoor play

102 The Reader's Shelf

Mysteries Within Mysteries

103 LJ Best Sellers

The most in-demand audiobooks, read by Edoardo Ballerini, Kyf Brewer, Brittany Pressley, Julia Whelan, and more

104 Review Stars

Essential titles and great reads, spanning fiction, nonfiction, graphic novels, and audiobooks

reference

94 A unique, beautifully crafted work showcases American fruits and nuts
98/Tench's eReview
100/Dominguez's eReview

THE LATEST ONLINE

www.libraryjournal.com

READ-ALIKES FROM
LIBRARYREADS AND LJ

Survive the Night, by Riley Sager (Dutton), is a popular holds title that continues to spark interest. LibraryReads and LJ offer read-alike titles by Oyinkan Braithwaite, Julia Heaberlin, and Alex North for patrons waiting to read Sager's buzzy thriller (bit.ly/3xqL4zn). Look for new read-alikes weekly.

SPOTLIGHT REVIEW

"This gripping account about the rise and fall of the Sackler family and their company Purdue Pharma is filled with scandals and intrigue, fueled by greed and arrogance.... In recounting the exploits of the Sackler family, Keefe has written an engaging, unputdownable book."—from Caroline Geck's review of *Empire of Pain: The Secret History of the Sackler Dynasty (bit.ly/3xrdF7Z)